

This “Pick and Mix” homework is for the whole half term.

- Try to complete the activities that are in a coloured grey box at least once a week.
- Bring any completed activities you wish to share by Monday 18th December.

Reading	Discover	DT	Writing
Read at least 3 times a week at home. Don't forget to record it in your reading diary!	Choose and research an aspect of Roman Britain, for example, food, homes, clothing, the army, their legacy - present your findings in a creative way like a poster, power point, picture or any other way you can think of!	We are looking at moving mechanisms this half term. Create your own design involving a moving element. You could use Lego, knex or recycled materials.	Imagine you are a Roman soldier. Write a letter home to your family, describing your experiences.
Art	Maths	PE	Sticky Question
Choose a Roman artefact to draw, paint or collage - can you use shading to make your drawing look 3D?	Practise your times tables daily on TT Rockstars.  Abbey Gates Website / Year 4 Class Page / Learning Links	We will be creating our own dances in school linked to Carnival of the Animals. Create your own dance to represent other animals. You could even get together with a friend and create a routine together.	Discuss your weekly sticky question  Abbey Gates Website / Year 4 Class Page / Homework / Sticky Questions
Spelling	RSHE / Take 5	Science	Reading
Complete the spelling practise worksheet that is sent home every Friday to embed using our weekly spelling rule and return it to school by the following Thursday.  Abbey Gates Website / Year 4 Class Page / Homework / Spelling	Practice your Take 5 routines to help you to regulate and stay in the green zone.  Challenge: can you create your own version?	Observe plants and animals in your garden or local area. Keep a diary or vlog documenting any seasonal changes that occur over the coming weeks. You could then revisit the same area later in the year.	Make your own ‘Reading Shelfie’ where you record your favourite books or the books that you have read this week, this term or even this year!
