

Be the Teacher

Adding the Suffixes -er, -ed and -ing to Words with More Than One Syllable (unstressed last syllable – DO NOT double the final consonant)

Demi-Lea has written the following sentences in class. Check Demi-Lea's sentences and highlight any spelling mistakes you notice. Then rewrite each sentence out with the correct spelling.

1. Sarah had been gardenning outside because it was a beautiful day!

2. The children benefitted from the extra singing practice they had before the concert.

3. While in maths, Jordan focussed on the calculations he had to complete.

4. Stella's parents limted her computer time to one hour each evening.

5. After a successful interview, Edward was offered the job.

6. The little time Freya had left before the party was limitting the amount of food she could prepare.

7. The garderner had lots of work to do before the flower show.

8. By foccussing really hard, Victor managed to complete the level on his new computer game.

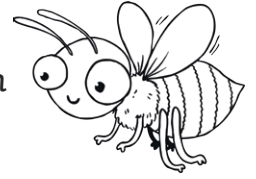

9. The new outdoor classroom was beneffiting all the children in the school.

10. The shop was offring a 10% discount on all clothes.

Be the Teacher Answers

Adding the Suffixes -er, -ed and -ing to Words with More Than One Syllable (unstressed last syllable – DO NOT double the final consonant)

Demi-Lea has written the following sentences in class. Check Demi-Lea's sentences and highlight any spelling mistakes you notice. Then rewrite each sentence out with the correct spelling.

1. Sarah had been gardenning outside because it was a beautiful day!
Sarah had been gardening outside because it was a beautiful day!
2. The children benefitted from the extra singing practice they had before the concert.
The children benefited from the extra singing practice they had before the concert.
3. While in maths, Jordan focussed on the calculations he had to complete.
While in maths, Jordan focused on the calculations he had to complete.
4. Stella's parents limted her computer time to one hour each evening.
Stella's parents limited her computer time to one hour each evening.
5. After a successful interview, Edward was offerred the job.
After a successful interview, Edward was offered the job.
6. The little time Freya had left before the party was limitting the amount of food she could prepare.
The little time Freya had left before the party was limiting the amount of food she could prepare.
7. The garderner had lots of work to do before the flower show.
The gardener had lots of work to do before the flower show.
8. By foccussing really hard, Victor managed to complete the level on his new computer game.
By focusing really hard, Victor managed to complete the level on his new computer game.
9. The new outdoor classroom was benefiting all the children in the school.
The new outdoor classroom was benefiting all the children in the school.
10. The shop was offering a 10% discount on all clothes.
The shop was offering a 10% discount on all clothes.