

Spelling Bee's Homework

'ough' words

Spelling Bee's teacher, Professor Sting, has set her a homework task to write a diary entry using her target spellings. Unfortunately, Spelling Bee has made some mistakes. Can you cross out the mistakes and write the spelling correctly above each word?

All the correct spellings are at the bottom of the page; please fold this part of the sheet back to see if you can remember how to spell these words without support.

Challenge: Once finished, try to write your own silly story using words with 'ough'.

Dear Diary,

Today, I made some doh to make a honey cake. Althoh I was worried it might make a mess in the kitchen, I thort it would be a good idea. I flew throo the roof (thoh I should have used the front door) and I went to the shop. I bort all the ingredients and then brort them home. I mixed all the ingredients but the mixture became so thick that I fort to stir it with my spoon. Then I had a breakthroo idea! I added more honey and then it was much easier to stir!
